SIR,

I have the honor to submit for orders of Government copies of Mr. Bowring's letter dated 25th May 1919 and my reply thereto.

2. Postal remittances can now be made at 1s-8d the rupee and I think Family Remittances have to be permitted at this rate if officers desire to make them through Government. There will be no concession to them and the case is simply one of convenience to the officers in paying by deduction from their salary bills and remitting through Government free of remittance charges. So long as the fixed rate for adjustment of sterling transactions continues to be 1s-6d, the excess of 2d per rupee paid on family remittances will be adjusted as loss on exchange. I request orders as to whether family remittances may be authorised at 1s-8d instead of at 1s-6d.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Comptroller.

Subject matter.

Copy of D.O. Camp Nanjungud, cated 25th May 1919 from Mr. P.F.Bowring, Deputy Commissioner, Mysore, to M.N. Krishna Rau, Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

In the ordinary course of events before the War, British Officers of the State were allowed to remit money home to their families at the rate of 1s-6d per rupee.

The current rate of exchange now is 1s-8 1/32 d so that if the two pence concession is still allowed to us, the rate should be 1s-10 1/32 d. In any case, I suppose, the Government will allow 1s-8 1/32d rate.

I wrote to you on this subject sometime ago but I don't remember to have ever received a reply.

I should like to know your views about this as the present rate of exchange is favourable and makes a great difference to me.

Bangalore, 29th May '19.

Dear Mr. Bowring,

Your D.O. camp dated 25th May 1919. You refer in it to a previous letter of yours re: exchange which has not reached me.

I think the concession of 2d extra was allowed because the rupee had depreciated. Now that it has risen in sterling value, the need for concession ceases and I do not think the claim for allowing 2d beyond the current rate is tenable. In any case this is a matter for orders of Government and I would suggest your addressing them on the subject.

As regards raising the rate for family remittance from 1s-6d to 1s-8d, I have addressed Government.

Yours sincerely,

Sd. M.N.Krishna Rau.
